REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR. The Annual Report of the Secretary of War ives a summary view of the operations of the Ar-ov during the last year, and its present condition.

The protection of our South-Western frontier, and of the Mexican Territory adjoining our own, The protection of our South-Western frontier, and of the Mexican Territory adjoining our own, against the incursions of hostile Indians, has engaged the attention of the Department. The savinges are actuated not so much by hostility to the Whites as motives of plunder. The character of the country in which they live makes it exceedingly difficult to guard against their ranges, or pursue them to panishment. Congress having failed to provide a mounted regiment at its last assion, as many troops adapted to the service required as could be spared from other quarters, wereconcentrated upon the frontier, to operate against the Indians.

were concentrated upon the frontier, to operate against the Indians.

The Indians of California and Oregon appearing anwarlike, and comparatively harmless, the Regiment of Mounted Riffernen was withdrawn from the Pacific, and ordered to Texas. In the interval of several months between the death of Brevet Major Samuel Braske, and the mrival of Brevet Major General Smith in Texas, the community of that Department devolved upon Brevet Brig. General Harney, who displayed great and effectual activity in arresting the incursions of the Indians.

With the double object of overawing these ribes, and of affording protection to such emi-grants as may take that route to Texas, New Mex-ica or California, the Department declared it ad-visable to establish a chain of military posts on that frontier. For this purpose, the Fifth Regi-ment of Disnitry (which was already sunfound-high up the Red Hiver and the Arkansos) was of-dered to advance further into the interior, and to

When it is considered that this small force is scattered over a Trootier of several thousands of miles in extent, its insufficiency will be apparent.
